Legal nature of regulations and guidelines

Regulations

Financial Supervisory Authority (FIN-FSA) regulations are presented under the heading 'Regulation' in FIN-FSA's regulations and guidelines. FIN-FSA regulations are binding legal requirements that must be complied with.

FIN-FSA issues regulations only by virtue of and within the limits of legal provisions that entitle it to do so.

Guidelines

FIN-FSA interpretations of the contents of laws and other binding provisions are presented under the heading 'Guideline' in FIN-FSA's regulations and guidelines.

Also recommendations and other operating guidelines that are not binding are presented under this heading, as are FIN-FSA's recommendations on compliance with international guidelines and recommendations.

The formulation of the guideline shows when it constitutes an interpretation and when it constitutes a recommendation or other operating guideline. A more detailed description of the formulation of guidelines and the legal nature of regulations and guidelines is provided on the FIN-FSA website.

Scope of application and definitions

1.1 Scope of application

- (1) These regulations and guidelines are applicable to the following authorised supervised entities as referred to in section 4 of the Act on the Financial Supervisory Authority (878/2008):
- a credit institution or a holding company and financial institution belonging to the same consolidation group in accordance with chapter 8a, sections 1 and 8 of the Credit Institutions Act (610/2014);
 - an investment firm that trades in financial instruments on its own account or underwrites issues in accordance with the Act on Investment Firms (747/2012) or a holding company and financial institution belonging to the same consolidation group;
 - an amalgamation of deposit banks in accordance with chapter 3, section 20 a of the Act on the amalgamation of deposit banks (599/2010).

Recommendation on the development of a recovery plan

- (1) On 23 January 2013, the European Banking Authority issued a recommendation to major European banking groups on the development of a recovery plan (EBA/REC/2013/02). The guidance concerning the development of such plans has subsequently been supplemented by Directive 2014/59/EU of the Parliament and of the Council.

GUIDELINE (paragraph 2)

- (2) The Financial Supervisory Authority recommends that entities falling within the scope of application of the Recommendation and groupings consisting of such entities comply with the recommendation of the EBA in designing the structure of the recovery plan and also take into account the requirements laid down in the Decree of the Ministry of Finance (1286/2014) on the information to be included in recovery plans. The EBA Recommendation is available at Finanssivalvonta.fi.

Guidelines on the range of scenarios to be used in recovery plans

- (1) On 18 July 2014, the European Banking Authority (EBA) issued Guidelines on the range of scenarios to be used in recovery plans (EBA/GL/2014/06). The Guidelines entered into force on 1 January 2015.

GUIDELINE (paragraph 2)

- (2) The Financial Supervisory Authority recommends that entities falling within the scope of application of the Recommendation and groupings consisting of such entities comply with the minimum requirements on the scenarios provided in the Guidelines. The EBA Guidelines are available at Finanssivalvonta.fi.

4

Guideline on qualitative and quantitative recovery plan indicators

- (1) On 23 July 2015, the European Banking Authority (EBA) issued Guidelines on qualitative and quantitative recovery plan indicators (EBA/GL/2015/02). The Guideline is applicable as of 31 July 2015.

GUIDELINE (paragraph 2)

- (2) The Financial Supervisory Authority recommends that entities falling within the scope of application of the Recommendation and groupings consisting of such entities comply with the recommendation of the EBA. The EBA Guidelines are available at Finanssivalvonta.fi.

5

Guidelines on triggers for use of early intervention measures

- (1) On 29 July 2015, the European Banking Authority (EBA) issued Guidelines on triggers for the use of early intervention measures (EBA/GL/2015/03). The Guidelines are applicable as of 1 January 2016.
- (2) The Guidelines are addressed to supervision authorities, ie as regards institutions under the ECB's direct supervision, the ECB, and as regards other institutions, the Financial Supervisory Authority.

GUIDELINE (paragraph 3)

- (3) Despite the designated target group of the Guidelines, the Financial Supervisory Authority recommends that entities falling within its scope of application familiarise themselves with the EBA Guideline on triggers for use of early intervention measures and take them into account in preparing their recovery plans. The EBA Guidelines are available at Finanssivalvonta.fi.

Guidelines on interpretations concerning when an institution shall be considered as failing or likely to fail

- (1) On 6 August 2015, the European Banking Authority (EBA) issued Guidelines on the interpretation of the different circumstances in which an institution shall be considered to be failing or likely to fail under Article 32(6) of Directive 2014/59/EU (EBA/GL/2015/07). The Guidelines are applicable as of 1 January 2016.
- (2) The Guidelines are addressed to supervision authorities and crisis resolution authorities. Supervision authorities refer to, as regards institutions under the ECB's direct supervision, the ECB, and as regards other institutions, the Financial Supervisory Authority. Crisis resolution authorities refer to, as regards institutions under the ECB's direct supervision, the Single Resolution Board, and as regards other institutions, the Financial Stability Authority.

GUIDELINE (paragraph 3)

- (3) The Guidelines also apply to entities falling within the scope of application by virtue of Article 81 (1) of Directive 2014/59/EU and groupings of such entities if they consider themselves to be near failing or likely to fail. The Financial Supervisory Authority recommends that entities falling within the scope of application of the Guidelines and groupings consisting of such entities comply with the EBA Guidelines in terms of the sections referred to above and take the aforesaid into account in circumstances referred to above. However, the sections of the Guidelines referring to the conditions for resolution laid out in Article 32 (1) (b) and (c) of Directive 2014/59/EU are not applicable to institutions. The EBA Guidelines are available at Finanssivalvonta.fi.
